COURTESY OF THE BRITONS

THE ANCESTOR AND HONORABLE AR- TILERY COMPANY IN LONDON.

The streets crowded with people to greet the American Soldiers—Re- ceived by the Honorable Artillery Company in London, on its return from the Grand Bouquet, at which the Prince of Wales and many distin- guished guests were present.

LIVERPOOL, July 7. Upward of 50,000 per- sons crowded the landing stage and the adjoining streets to welcome the American Soldiers, and a crowd of thousands again gathered at the Grand Bouquet, at which the Prince of Wales and many distinguished guests were present.

Among those who have accepted invitations to the banquet in London to-morrow are the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Connaught, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg, Lord Woburn, Commander in chief of the Brit- ish forces; Field Marshal Lord Hambrough, commanders-in-chief of the French, Field Marshal Sir Donald Stewart, Governor of the Royal Artillery, and Sir Henry Hubertus, Prime Minister, and all the members of the cabinet, the officers of the British army, and most of the leading statesmen of Great Brit- ain.

LIVERPOOL, July 7. The trip from Liverpool to this city was uneventful, but upon the arrival of the men at the station, they were met by a crowd of several thousand, who hailed them with demonstrations of enthusiasm. The streets around the station in Queen Square were crowded with people, and the city had a gay air.

The train arrived at the station, and a crowd of several thousand lined the platforms and met the party, who were received with demonstrations of enthusiasm by the crowd. The streets around the station were crowded with people, and the city had a gay air.

A number of the officers, who had been invited to the banquet in London to-morrow, were present, and were received with demonstrations of enthusiasm by the crowd. The streets around the station were crowded with people, and the city had a gay air.

The American Army was received with demonstrations of enthusiasm by the crowd. The streets around the station were crowded with people, and the city had a gay air.

The American Army was received with demonstrations of enthusiasm by the crowd. The streets around the station were crowded with people, and the city had a gay air.

The American Army was received with demonstrations of enthusiasm by the crowd. The streets around the station were crowded with people, and the city had a gay air.

The American Army was received with demonstrations of enthusiasm by the crowd. The streets around the station were crowded with people, and the city had a gay air.