Warsaw, Nov. 2: Senate speaker Longin Pastusiak met a delegation of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts from the U. S. During the meeting Pastusiak recounted the Polish Senate's history and reviewed developments in Poland during recent years. Reminding about the historical character of Polish-U.S. relations, he also noted that political cooperation between both countries did not find reflection in the economic sphere. Referring to today's terrorist threats, Pastusiak said that all the world's countries should unite in the battle against global terrorism. Massachusetts Artillery Company Commander William O'Brien said he and his delegation were enchanted with Poland. He also praised Poland's economic successes, reminding that a strong economic position required hard work. The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts is the third oldest military organization in the world after the Swiss Papal Guard and the Honourable Artillery Company of London.
