Nicholas Scharizzi takes command

AHAC Command Staff:

At the conclusion of these exercises, newly commissioned 311th Captain Commanding Nicholas Scharizzi lead the Company down Boylston Street to the Old South Church for services and remembrance of our departed members.

The AHAC continues to serve as the commemorative honor guard of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Governor and participate in numerous wreath-laying exercises and parades throughout the region and around the world. Among his 2019-20 duties, Captain Commanding Nick Scharizzi will lead the Company during October’s Fall Field Day Tour of Duty to Croatia and participate in Plymouth 400 exercises commemorating the 400th anniversary of the arrival of the Pilgrims. The AHAC will serve as the Honor Guard for all ceremonies during Plymouth 400: 1620-2020.

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company is the oldest chartered military organization in the Western Hemisphere; it was founded in 1638 and has been headquartered in historic Faneuil Hall in Boston since 1746. For further information, visit www.ahac-us.com or call (617-227-1638). The Company’s membership has included 14 Congressional Medal of Honor Recipients, four Presidents of the United States, and service men and women that have fought in every war and conflict in service to their colony, Commonwealth, and nation.
