Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts
Donates $5,000 to Fisher House

Boston, Mass. May 22, 2019 –
The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, headquartered in Faneuil Hall in Boston, made a $5,000 donation to the Fisher House Foundation. The Company donation was personally delivered by the Captain Commanding, LTC Charles J. McCarthy, Jr., to Jennifer DeLuca, the Executive Director of the Fisher House of Boston.
The Fisher House Foundation builds comfort homes where military & veterans’ families can stay free of charge while a loved one is in the hospital. Since its establishment, the foundation has provided services for over 300,000 families, including over 8 million days of lodging and over $24 million in scholarship awards.
The Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company was Chartered by the Great and General Court of Massachusetts and Governor Winthrop in 1638 to train gentlemen as officers for the Massachusetts Militia, a role which the Company fulfilled until 1912. In addition, the Company has served as a ceremonial unit for the governor and the city of Boston, and as a patriotic, fraternal organization. The Company has been headquartered at Faneuil Hall since 1745. Today’s Honor recipients – patriots all.™
